

CBIZ Acquires PrimarilyCare

May 10, 2012

CLEVELAND, May 10, 2012 /PRNewswire/ -- CBIZ, Inc. (NYSE: CBZ) today announced that it has acquired the assets of Primarily Care, Inc. of Cranston, RI, effective May 1, 2012.

Founded in 1999 by Ed Belt, PrimarilyCare is an employee benefits brokerage firm that offers long-term healthcare cost reduction strategies that preserve employee benefits by providing a unique system comprised of technology, innovative plan design, educational tools and tangible financial health incentives. PrimarilyCare has 11 employees and is expected to add $1.8 million to CBIZ annualized revenue.

Ed Belt of PrimarilyCare stated, "In today's evolving benefits market, capacity, scale and integrity matter greatly, with integrity being the most important. A thorough review of our options for growth indicates that becoming part of CBIZ, a growing, reputable, publically traded organization, offers our employees and most importantly our clients all of these. We are excited to become part of the CBIZ success story."

Steven L. Gerard, CBIZ Chairman and CEO, stated, "The acquisition of PrimarilyCare will expand our benefit brokerage consulting businesses in the Northeast and will further enhance our current services in the Boston and Providence markets. Ed Belt and Pete Tarmey's background and excellent reputation as consultants and solution providers will help grow our business in the region and nationally."
